Sub: - In the matter of increase in power price.

Dear Sir,

Due to increase in price of coal and shortage of coal supply there is abnormal increase in power price in open market. The current power price in open market is around Rs 14 to Rs 16 per kWh. The Corporation is procuring power from open market to meet the industrial consumer demand of the DNHPDCL. The approved power purchase cost is around Rs 4.94 per kWh. However, it is to inform that the procurement of power at such abnormal price from the open market will result into abnormal increase in FPPCA.

In such scenario, there are two options i.e. one to enforce load shedding to optimize power purchase cost and second to continue the procurement of power at the cost of FPPCA.

In the view of above, it is requested that you may kindly convey your willingness for the above two options to have a judicious approach in the said matter.
