WHAT IS A VIRTUAL TRADE SHOW ?

With the current Global Situation & severe travel restrictions, exports of many companies around the globe have been adversely affected. This is where the concept of virtual events comes into the picture, bringing it beyond a physical venue, making it available to individuals beyond their travel & safety limits and providing high scalability. A virtual trade show is an online version of an event to view and display the products and services. Participants can watch the online presentation of the product, and can also meet exhibitors online. The exhibitor can reach out to a large number of audiences and prospective visitors. Virtual Trade Shows happen over the internet (online). No matter where you are in the world, what kind of devices you use, when you're available, virtual events come with great benefits and scope for everyone specially the attendees. The organizer has the chance to invite attendees from several countries & not be limited to the host country. Flexibilities are immense for each Exhibitor and most importantly it is a very cost-effective option.

ABOUT US

The All India Plastic Industries Association (AIPIA) has been in existence since 1982 with its headquarters located at New Delhi, India. AIPIA, being an Oldest and Active Association in the country, represents Micro, Small and Medium Scale Plastic Processing Industry as well as Retailers and Dealers engaged in plastics and related interests in the country.

As on date, the Association has 720 Life membership with a total registration of 2500 units approximately, spread all over the the country.

Right from its inception, we have been alive to the various areas of problems/concerns of the industry with regard to government duties, policy of raw – materials suppliers, pollution potential of processing of plastic products, categorization of plastic products under Green category, various types of plastic bags, India customs & duty tariff codes and its linking to HSN Code etc.

The Association actively follows up with various agencies (government and non-government) to obtain satisfactory resolution of industries' multifarious problems. AIPIA has been a Member of the Public Grievance Committee, Regional Advisory Committee of Central Excise, BIS, MSME etc. Issues of concern of members are raised in these forums for satisfactory redressal.
