11th April 2016

To

The Secretaries of Tourism
✓ State Governments & Union Territory Administrations

Subject: Global Exhibition on Services 2016 – Reg.

Dear Madam / Sir,

Your kind attention is invited to my earlier letter of even No. dated 29.02.2016 requesting your consideration for participation in the Global Exhibition on Services (GES) at the India Expo Centre and Mart, Greater Noida from April 20 – 23, 2016. GES is being organised by the Ministry of Commerce and Industry, Govt. of India, Services Export Promotion Council (SEPC) and the Confederation of Indian Industry (CII).

2. It is reiterated that as informed by the Ministry of Commerce, the focus sectors of GES 2016 are Information Technology and Telecom, SME in Services, Education, Healthcare, Logistics, Media & Entertainment, Professional Services, Tourism, Space and Research & Development. The Exhibition will have dedicated space for seminars, business to business meetings and round tables around focus sectors. Major stakeholders including Governments, PSUs and NGOs will also be participating in the Exhibition.

It has been informed that 350 companies from 60 countries (including India) participated as exhibitors/delegates and 3000 structured matchmaking meetings were held during GES 2015.

3. It is once again requested that the States/UT Administrations may consider participation in GES 2016 to showcase and promote their tourism destinations and various tourism products to a global audience.

4. For further information or clarification regarding your participation, you may contact the following as per contact details given below:
