

Dear Sir/ Madam,

Inflation is rearing its ugly head, after a begin period. Consumer Price Index (CPI) has breached the RBI's comfort zone. Retail inflation, especially of food articles, is hurting consumers, more so the financially challenged. There are supply side issues including weather aberrances. International factors are playing a role. Under these circumstances, what should be the focus of RBI's Credit Policy? This and related issues of the Indian Economy will be discussed by a Panel of Experts with the aim to provide inputs for upcoming Credit Policy. Expert will focus on 3 key drivers of inflation namely Crude, Crops and Currency.
