Subject: Judicious approach in taking industrial staff vehicle for election duties.

Sir,

Many members of all three Associations have brought to our notice that Administration has issued notices to them that their staff buses will be attached on 24th and 25th Oct 2015 for Panchayt Elections duties to transport polling staff.

In this connection, it is submitted that we, three Associations have no objection for taking these buses on 25th Oct 2015 as being polling day, most of the industrial organizations will not be working, but taking the buses on 24th Oct 2015 will disturb the normal production activities intensively. We strongly oppose the move of Administration to that extent.

We suggest that, for 24th Oct 15, Administration should consult respective organization and take the transport during idle time of those buses and let them be available for transporting industrial staff at their normal time. For example, buses used for general shift duties industries, generally remain idle between 11:00 am to 04:00 pm, depending upon the working of the organization. Hence, in place of a blanket approach, Administration should decide the timings on-case to case basis.

Further, Administration can think of utilizing Sarthi buses available in the U T on both days.

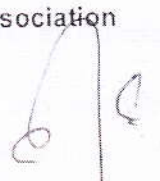

Industries wish to extend their full cooperation to Administration in conducting their pious duty of democracy. And, we are sure that Administration will also ensure that manufacturing is not disturbed, which is also national cause. Both have to take place in the interest of nation and society.

Thanking you.

Yours faithfully,
